It's official. The Lobbying Act will take effect on July 2, 2008. The Act and regulations represent the most fundamental changes to federal lobbying law in nearly two decades.

This exclusive seminar, presented by Canada's leading expert and team in lobbying law is a continuation of the 2007 Seminar "Canada's New Lobbying Act. Are You Ready?". It will provide the most in-depth examination of business rights and responsibilities under the new regulations.

Topics to be covered:

- detailed monthly reporting: how to comply
- the "cooling off period": what's covered and what's not
- compliance and enforcement
- what every business, lobbyist or non-profit association should know when communicating with the federal government

Who should attend?

- business leaders
- government relations executives and managers
- in-house counsel
- staff and directors of non-profit associations
- public affairs consultants
- lawyers

A $350 (+GST) seminar fee entitles participants to breakfast and the following:

- a detailed presentation by Canada's leading expert and team in lobbying law
- in-depth question and answer session
- exclusive materials

Please RSVP with Jeff Graham at jgraham@fasken.com (please indicate which location you plan to attend)

Payment information will be sent to you following your registration.
