In-House Counsel in an Era of Corporate Governance

Starting at noon, a full session will be held to take a look at the role of in-house counsel at a time when corporate governance is becoming all the more strict. Exactly how do we define their role and responsibilities? What expectations do they have to meet within their organization? What must they expect from outside counsel? This full meeting will be led and moderated by Robert Paré, partner at Fasken Martineau.

The guest panelists include:

- M^{me} Daniel Desjardins, Senior Vice President, General Counsel, Bombardier
- M^{re} Marc Tremblay, Vice-President of Legal Affairs, Quebecor
