Peter Kletas – Program Counsel, Infrastructure at Vancouver Fraser Port Authority

Peter Kletas is Program Counsel, Infrastructure, for the Vancouver Fraser Port Authority, an arm's-length federal agency responsible for the shared stewardship of the lands and waters that make up the Port of Vancouver, Canada's largest port. He is lead counsel for the Roberts Bank Terminal 2 project, a proposed major three-berth marine container terminal expansion in Delta, British Columbia. Peter provides the project and the organization with legal and strategic advice on a variety of areas, including environmental and regulatory matters, procurement and contracting, real estate, and corporate governance. He is also an adjunct professor teaching business law at UBC's Sauder School of Business.
